Stays at Home

Singapore has new rules
now.
We must STAY AT HOME.

We only go out to buy food, exercise or see a doctor.

Staying home means that I cannot go to any of my favourite places.

That makes me feel really sad, and sometimes...

...REALLY ANGRY!!!

I screamed and cried when Mummy and Daddy said I could not go out.

Mummy and Daddy stayed calm and talked to me.
They said:

We know you feel sad and angry. We feel the same way too. We wish we could go outside too but we cannot.

Mummy and Daddy stayed close to me and waited for me to cool down.

Mummy and Daddy talked to me when I was calm.
They said we could have a new STAY AT HOME plan!

Mummy and Daddy talked to me about my STAY AT HOME plan.

I do learning activities in the morning.

I play with my sister after I finish my learning activities.

Mummy watches a cartoon with me, and we act out the story afterwards.

I help with housework.

We dance at home as exercise.

Sometimes, I can even talk to my grandparents on video call and that makes me feel happy.

I like my new STAY AT HOME plan.

There are some activities I do by myself, like colouring!

And some that we do together, like exercise.

Mummy and Daddy are proud that I can follow the plan.

Mummy and Daddy tell me that when fewer people get the virus, I will be able to go out more.

I want to go back to school soon, visit my grandparents, and go to the playground. But for now, I will STAY AT HOME. I hope you will too!
